

Forced Migrants, Agency and the Production of Migration

Prof. Dr. Christoph Rass (IMIS / SFB 1604), Prof. Dr. Kerstin von Lingen (University of Vienna)

Thursday, 27th June 2024, 18:00-19:30 Uhr (15/130)

Guest Lecture: Dr. Philipp Strobl (University of Vienna): Navigating Through Refugee Agency: Methodological Considerations from a Historical Perspective.

Friday, 28th June 2024, Workshop, IMIS Osnabrück, IMIS-Meetingroom (03/E23)

9:00-11:00

Kerstin von Lingen/
Christoph Rass

Welcoming Remarks

Christoph Rass

IMIS/ SFB 1604

Conceptualizing the Agency of Forced Migrants Past and Present: A Dialog across Disciplines.

Annika Heyen

IMIS/ SFB 1604

Production of non-action as an Expression of Agency within the emerging Modern Refugee Regime: The Bermuda Conference

11:00-11:15

Coffee Break

11:15-13.15

Franziska Lamp

University of Vienna

Negotiating Different Layers of Agency in DP-Camps in Post-war Austria: The Interactions between Displaced Persons and UNRRA/IRO-staff.

Jessica Wehner/
Christoph Rass

IMIS

Disputed (Non)Belonging: Migrant Agency in the European Displacement Crisis 1945 to 1956.

Samantha Knapton

University of Nottingham

Voting with their Feet: The (attempted) Return of Polish Displaced Children to UNRRA camps in Occupied Germany.

13:15-14:15

Lunch

14:15-16.15

Susanne Korbel

University of Graz

Jewish Refugees and Trafficking in Girls After 1945.

Jiayi Tao

University of Vienna

From Patriots to Unwanted Refugees: Strategies of Displaced Non-Elite Chinese in Second World War China

Konstantin Schischka

University of Vienna

The Interwar Legacy: A Spatial Perspective on Shifting Borders, Displacement, Refuge, and Resettlement

16.15-16:30

Coffee Break

16:30-17:15

Discussion

Norms, Regulation and Refugee Agency: Negotiating the Migration Regimes

GLORE. Global Resettlement Regimes. ERC Research Group

SFB 1604 — Produktion von Migration